TN.GOV Has a New Online Interface

I was coming up for my Private Investigator license renewal and when I got the envelope out of the mailbox, I assumed it was the same old form to fill out sign and send back in with my check and photographs. But I received a surprise when I finally got around to opening it because it was a single sheet but not a form to fill out. It had the instructions on how to create an account at core.tn.gov so that you can renew your license and check your continuing education requirements online now.

Planning for Seminar 2018

Plans for the 2018 CPE Seminar are already in the works. We are compiling the data from our 2017 CPE critique sheets and going over the suggested locations for the next meeting as well as utilizing your feedback on topic suggestions to hopefully put together a customized seminar that will benefit you guys and allow us all to gain some valuable insight on topics that are relevant to the investigative services each of us provide to our clients. But don't wait until you see the info here, check the website for info as well.

Next Meeting:

When: January 9, 2018

You will need the sheet to create your account because it has a number on it that you will need to type in once you get so far in creating your account. Once you have created an account when you log in it should look something like this:

The screenshot shows the user interface for Phillip Burnett, logged in as a Private Investigator. The page features a 'Quick Start Menu' with three main options: 'It is time to Renew!', 'Manage your license information', and 'Apply for a New Type of License, Permit or Registration -- NOT FOR RENEWAL'. Each option includes a dropdown menu for the license type (currently set to 'Private Investigator #5083') and a 'Select' button. A 'License Information' box in the top right corner displays the license number (#5083) and type (Private Investigator), with a 'Show CE' button. The top navigation bar includes links for 'Update Profile', 'Logoff', and 'Contact Us'.

As you can see from this example, from here you can renew your license, apply for a “New Type” of license and you can click on the “Show CE” box up in the right hand corner inside the “License Information” box to view your continuing education credits or how many you still need to acquire before your renewal date. Below is a picture showing the CE page

The screenshot displays the 'CE Summary' page for Phillip Burnett. It shows the license type as '1401-Private Investigators' and the license number as '5083'. A table below provides a summary of the Continuing Education (CE) history, showing a requirement of 12 hours from 08/01/2015 to 07/31/2017, with 12 credits gained and a shortfall of 0. The page includes a 'View CE History' button and a 'Back' button.

CE Requirement	From	To	Hours required	Credit Gained	Shortfall
CE for Private Investigator	08/01/2015	07/31/2017	12	12	0
